

4th Annual 9th Circuit Boot Camp

A Beginning and Intermediate Guide to 9th Circuit Practice

This is a unique opportunity to learn the nuts and bolts of 9th Circuit practice from 9th Circuit staff attorneys with over forty years of combined experience. This seminar will provide concrete and practical advice at every stage of the appellate process, from the filing of the notice of appeal to the issuance of the mandate, and will include several practice exercises to give you the opportunity to apply the skills you will develop. You will gain valuable insight into what is expected of you and what you can expect from the court, including a list of useful tips for effective practice before the 9th Circuit as well as common pitfalls to avoid.

Attendees will learn:

- An Overview of the Federal Appellate Process
- Working with the Motions Unit
- Briefing Your Appeal Effectively
- Preparing the Excerpts of Record
- Developing Your Oral Argument
- Drafting Petitions for Panel Rehearing and Petitions for Rehearing En Banc
- Using the Court's Electronic Filing System
- Communicating with the Court: Whom to Contact When You Need Help
