Appellate law experts, including career Judicial Law Clerks from multiple Illinois Courts of Appeal, discuss Illinois appellate practice, with an emphasis on the practical aspects. Main topics include: drafting effective briefs; presenting oral argument; standards of review; how appeals are processed and resolved; rehearing petitions, and the top "do's" and "don'ts" for effective appellate attorneys. The program focuses on improving attorneys' practice, brief writing and oral argument, identifying common procedural mistakes and teaching attorneys what the court really wants.

After presenting this program for three years, we can proudly state that you will learn more in this program about practicing in the Courts of Appeal than any other program you have attended on the topic.

Topics include:

- Getting Familiar with the Rules
- Jurisdiction: Appealing the Right Order or Judgment
- Drafting An Effective Brief
 - Presenting the Facts
 - Standards of Review
 - Arguments--Headings & Roadmaps
 - Tips For Effective Arguments and Strategies
- Motion Practice
- Oral Arguments--What to Expect
- Decision Process--Summary Orders, Rule 23, Published Decisions
- Post-Judgment Practice: Petitions for Rehearing and Appealing To the IL Supreme Court
